FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE REGISTRY COLLECTION EXCHANGE PROGRAM WELCOMES THREE LUXURY AFFILIATES

The Luxury Exchange Program's Members Now Have Access to More Resorts in Florida, North Africa and Greece

PARSIPPANY, N.J. - (August 20, 2009) - The Registry Collection[®] Exchange Program, the world's largest luxury exchange program offered by Group RCI, the worldwide leader in vacation exchange and the European leader in vacation rentals and one of the Wyndham Worldwide family of brands (NYSE: WYN), today announced relationships with three luxury affiliates which will become part of The Registry Collection exchange program's growing network.

The new resorts include Jimmy Johnson's Fisherman's Cove in the Florida Keys, The International Riviera in North Africa and Halcyon Hills Spa Resort and Marina in Greece.

"We are extremely excited to welcome these extraordinary properties to The Registry Collection program," said Gregg Anderson, global managing director, The Registry Collection program. "Each resort boasts incredible features that epitomize the vacation experiences we offer our more than 30,000 members through this elite global network."

Fisherman's Cove in the Florida Keys epitomizes the best of the Keys' outdoor and entertainment opportunities including celebrated sunsets, world-class sport fishing, outstanding diving, a thriving art community, lively nightlife and delightful waterfront dining. This private residence club lavishes a total of only 48 owners with luxury at every turn. Guests will enjoy on-site amenities including an outdoor swimming pool and cabanas; private dock and boats for personal use of owners; rooftop terrace with a jetted tub; wet bar and sunbathing area; state-of-the-art fitness center; waterfront dining and room service; and an exceptional staff to handle all needs and requests.

The International Riviera in Tunisia, North Africa, is set to be completed in 2011 and will include 50 luxury waterfront villas. The concept for The International Riviera was created to be a fusion of European elegance and the 21st century pioneering spirit of Dubai. The five-star residential resort development will have at its heart a Las Vegas-style casino complex and a range of other upscale amenities, including golf, spa, marinas and retail.

Halcyon Hills Spa Resort and Marina on the Greek island of Samos will boast an array of luxury facilities including a 1,200 square-meter spa, a 35-berth private marina, two beaches, tennis courts and more when completed. The ethos of the resort combines luxury with the traditional Greek charm of Samos.
